FEI Children's International Jumping Competition- Summary

The FEI Children's International Jumping Competition consists of three categories, A B and C, of different standards. Children may participate in qualifying events with horses or ponies in all three categories.

Each category consists of 2 competitions run over different courses designed by a Course Designer designated by the FEI.

Each of the two competitions consists of 2 rounds run under Table A. In case of equality of penalties after two rounds, the time of the second round will decide. Both rounds must be jumped on the same day.

The complete competition consists of four rounds. The final score for each competitor is the total penalties of the four rounds and the total of his/her time in the two second rounds. If the totals of times are equal, the fastest time in the second round of the second competition will decide.

FEI Children's International Jumping Competition - Courses

The course of the first round of each competition will consist of between ten and twelve obstacles including two doubles or one double and one treble. There will be no water jump but obstacles that include a water ditch may be used.

The course of the second round of each competition will consist of between eight and ten obstacles including one double or one treble.

The courses will be designed by experienced FEI Course Designers, designated by the FEI Children's Committee. The courses for Categories A and B will be identical; only the height/width of the obstacles and the speed will be reduced for Category B. The courses for Category C will be different from A and B, in view of the reduced size of the arena.

The Federation Equestre International (FEI) expects all those involved in international equestrian sport to adhere to the FEI's Code of Conduct and to acknowledge and accept that at all times the welfare of the horse must be paramount and must never be subordinated to competitive or commercial influences.

1. At all stages during the preparation and training of competition horses, welfare must take precedence over all other demands. This includes good horse management, training methods, farriery and tack, and transportation.
2. Horses and competitors must be fit, competent and in good health before they are allowed to compete. This encompasses medication use, surgical procedures that threaten welfare or safety, pregnancy in mares and the misuse of aids.
3. Events must not prejudice horse welfare. This involves paying careful attention to the competition areas, ground surfaces, weather conditions, stabling, site safety and fitness of the horse for onward travel after the event.
4. Every effort must be made to ensure that horses receive proper attention after they have competed and that they are treated humanely when their competition careers are over. This covers proper veterinary care, competition injuries, euthanasia and retirement.
5. The FEI urges all involved with the sport to attain the highest levels of education in their areas of expertise.
